Mont-Vista Lodge Liquor License Granted By Court

Following almost two years of battling, Mont-Vista Lodge, 2426 N. Euclid, San Antonio Heights, was granted an on-sale liquor license by the Fourth District Court of Appeal on April 25.

The license had been granted by the San Bernardino Superior Court about a year ago, but was held up on the appeal of the First Baptist Church of San Antonio Heights and residents of the area led by Rev. Kenneth B. Mayes, pastor of the church.

The new decision handed down by Judges Coughlin, Griffin and Brown affirmed the Superior Court ruling.

Martin Koss, owner of the lodge, originally filed with the Alcoholic Beverage Control Department for the transfer of an on-sale license to his lodge in June of 1961, shortly after he purchased the establishment.

The original application was denied by the ABC on the grounds of the location of the lodge being too close to a church, in a residential area and would be contrary to public welfare and morals.

Koss appealed and the hearing which followed in August, 1961, reversed the original decision and the license was granted.

The group headed by Mayes filed an appeal and the license was again denied by the ABC Appeals Board in January of 1962.

The Appeals Board stated that the findings of the department "are not supported by substantial evidence and that the issuance of the license in question constitutes an abuse of discretion."

In April of 1962, the San Bernardino Superior Court granted the license and this decision was upheld by the recent District Court of Appeals ruling.

According to the latest findings, the Court of Appeal determined that the issuance of the license would not be contrary to the public welfare and morals and that there would be no conflict between use of the license and the church premises.

According to the court opinion, the integrity of the applicant as shown by his previous experience was taken into consideration and the kind of business to be conducted as wel as probably guests of the lodge.

In the final paragraph of the opinion, the judges declared:

"In the instant case there is substantial evidence establishing facts which the Department was entitled to determine constituted good cause for concluding that issuance of the subject license would not be contrary to public welfare or morals. The decision of the Appeals Board to the contrary was agai nstlaw. The judgement of the trial court sustaining the determination of the Department and directing the Appeals Board to modify its decision accordingly was proper. The judgements are affirmed."

One more place of appeal remains for the persons opposing the granting of the license - the State Supreme Court. According to a spokesman for the church, the group is presently undecided as to whether to pursue the case further.

Upland Citizen Recalls Basic Inherent Right To 'Pursuit Of Happiness'

(Editor's Note: The following letter was written by an Upland citizen to the Upland City Council with a copy directed to the Upland News. We believe it is worth publishing as a matter for information and consideration.)

City Council
City of Upland
City Hall
Upland, California
Gentlemen:

Our Founding Fathers in laying out the structure for this Republic set forth that there were certain basic rights enjoyed by individuals which were given to them by God—rights that no government could or should control.

These rights were Life, Liberty, and the Pursuit of Happiness.

In the first drafts of the Declaration of Independence it was penned as Life, Liberty and Property. But the wise men thought that the words pursuit of happiness would be more all inclusive and less definitive than just the word property.

And so the right to own property and do with it as one chooses is a basic inherent right not to be lightly taken nor easily usurped by government.

However, occasions will arise when it is necessary that an individual's property be used for public use which is deemed beneficial to the welfare of the whole people and then we get into the concept of eminent domain.

Eminent domain is a process by which government may take an individual's private property under due process of law with just compensation being given for it. Naturally, this right must not be abused nor used except in cases where there is no alternative for when you start relinquishing your God given rights to government, you may end up having your rights to life and liberty usurped as well.

Relative to eminent domain, the great patriot Dan Smoot says, "In a nation where people love freedom; where they know the truth, that all governments will become tyrannical if permitted; where they consider the rights of individuals as sacred; and where they have the character to fight for the freedom they cherish—people will habitually resist every act of government that is an encroachment upon the sacred rights of individuals.

"They will resist so consistently and noisily that, in every instance, government will have to prove its case before violating citizens' rights: government will have to prove that the 'public need' is so great and self-evident that all reasonable men concede the necessity, in this one instance, of sacrificing individual rights for the good of the whole people."

Usually eminent domain is used for the acquisition of property for the construction of highways, bridges, canals, etc. At a local level, it would seem wiser and fairer to operate within the free market for the purchase of a site for a fire station than to acquire by condemnation that which belongs to another.

I, as an individual, could not take another's property without their consent unless I be prosecuted for stealing. Nor could I leave them a sum of money to sooth my conscience and proceed with the seizure.

What I can not do as an individual, I should not want to do by joining others in the name of government. It then becomes stealing on an organized or mass basis.

Why should the City of Upland need this particular piece of property? If the property were already improved, it would be out of the question and negotiations elsewhere would be necessitated.

Unless this was absolutely the only piece of property suitable for this one need, steps should not be taken to usurp an owners property rights when they do not wish to sell.

Why is the northeast corner so much more advantageous than the southwest corner owned by the Mayor? Couldn't the Mayor as a public spirited citizen sell a corner of his property to another party so the City could purchase it since a councilman may not lawfully have financial dealings with his own city government?

I think if there are other reasonable alternatives and avenues open to government, the city should not proceed with the condemnation of this particular piece of property.

Aside from the question of property rights, we must consider finances. A piece of land was offered at the price of 2,500 but if condemnation proceedings go ahead, it could cost upwards of $10,000.

Since $5,000 was allocated for site acquisition, that means quite a bit more of the taxpayers money would be used. Remember government has no money except that which it first takes from the people!

Yours very truly,
Grace J. Ledford

Armed Man Gets $90 From Station

A youthful gas station attendant was the victim of an armed robbery Tuesday night in Upland.

Richard Koepp, 18, of Ontario, was cleaning up around the islands of Flite Chief Gas Station at 9th and Campus

He tole police that as he turned around from the trash cans a man approached from behind and demanded: "Give me the white money box or I'll kill you." The man, lower part of face covered with a nylon stocking, held a chrome 45 automatic.

Koepp gave him the money box containing about $90 and was told to walk across the street.

The armed robber disappeared down an alley. He was described as about 45 years old, white male, thin, about 5' 7" and wearing a dark jacket.

Planners Get Report For Recommendations

Upland City Councilmen Tuesday launched a gigantic study program for the community eventually to translate into a polished, finished guideline in the rapidly-expanding spheres of annexation, zoning, and commercial and industrial development.

A special committee, appointed last year by the Mayor, turned in a finished report Tuesday which was accepted by the City Council and immediately turned over to the Planning Commission for study and recommendations as soon as possible.

Most of the Councilmen had not seen the report or received copies prior to the meeting, so the report was given to the planners without any study except by the committee.

Mayor Haldeman said that the growth of the City was so fast-moving that the City could not 'pussy-foot" around "the way things are moving." He called for efforts of the entire community for "progressive research and development" to keep pace with growth.

The committee consisted of Councilman William Kistinger, chairman; John Z. Martin, president of Upland College; Russell L. Hazen, as former president of the Chamber of Commerce; Delbert Hensley, Ontario-Upland Realty Board; John Ward, advisor.

Councilman Max Hawkins was a member, but refused to sign the committee report because he disagreed with some o' the findings, and he did not attend all the meetings. George Whitney, former Planning Commission chairman, was a member, but did not participate in the meetings or conclusions,the mayor said.

Because of the great importance to the citizens of Upland, THE NEWS is printing the complete report word-for-word as follows:

Industrial and Commercial Development Committee of the City Of Upland

Purpose

The Industrial and Commercial Development Committee of the City of Upland, hereinafter referred to as COMMITTEE, being duly appointed by the Mayor of the City of Upland, with the advice and consent of the Council of said City of Upland, and being duly charged with the responsibility of making recommendations to the City Council, City Planning Commission, and Administrative Officials that would be beneficial to the City's industrial, commercial, and over all development procedure; to assist the City in attracting new commercial enterprises and industrial expansion into the community; to assist directly where necessary the development of commercial and industrial enterprises within the City; and to recommend to the City governing bodies those steps that could be beneficial in the annexation of desirable areas to the City of Upland.

Recommendations

WHEREAS, the COMMITTEE has studied the general plan of development and the precise zoning plan as established thereunder and does recognize that any plan of development must be flexible enough to adjust to the changing requirements of an urban community and at the same time does not adversely affect adjacent properties but must benefit individual property owners and the City as a whole; therefore, be it resolved that the COMMITTEE does recommend the following changes be incorporated into the general plan of development:

1. A highway commercial type zoning be established on Central Avenue extending from the south city limits to Foothill Boulevard.
2. That commercial zoning be established on Mountain Avenue extending from the San Bernardino Freeway north to the proposed Foothill Freeway excepting those areas currently designated on the precise zoning map as being industrial.
3. The areas adjacent to the Mountain Avenue commercial should be designated as high density residential zone.
4. Euclid Avenue from the San Bernardino Freeway northward to Foothill Boulevard should be designated as general commercial zone.
5. Campus Avenue from 14th Street north to the proposed Foothill Freeway should be designatd as a light industrial zone.
6. Grove Avenue from the south city limits to Foothill Boulevard should be designated as general commercial except those areas currently set aside for industrial development.
7. Foothill Boulevard from Euclid Avenue west to Benson Avenue should be designated as highway commercial with a buffer adjacent to same for high density residential.
8. The north side of Foothill Boulevard from Benson Avenue west to the County line should be designated highway commercial buffered by an industrial zone on the north extending northward to 24th street and westward to the County line.
9. The south side of Foothill nue west to the County line Boulevard from Benson Avenue should be designated light industrial which wil laccommodate highway commercial uses.
10. The area bounded by Arrow Highway on the north, the Santa Fe Railroad on the south, First Avenue on the west and Third Avenue on the east is composed for the most part of older commercial structures which will find it difficult to compete with modern commercial developments. Thus, we recommend that the city building and zon-

NEW SON

Mr. and Mrs. Richard W. Welsh, 1456 Estrellita Ct., Upland, are the parents of a son born May 3 at San Antonio Hospital.

Mother, Baby Care Course

Beginning the week of May 13, the Upland Chapter of the American National Red Cross will offer an evening course in "Mother and Baby Care" for expectant parents. Both parents will benefit from the techniques learned in the 12-hour course.

Divided into three sections, the first part of the course deals with the preparations before the baby comes. These include the assembling of an adequate layette, and what the mother should wear, eat, and do during pregnancy, to insure her own and the baby's health and safety.

Second section of the course demonstrates how to bathe, feed and carry the baby and how to become a quick-change artist. The third section deals with how to guard against infection and communicable disease, and how to give the baby a feeling of "belonging" and so help him be a happy, well-balanced individual.

The six 2-hour lessons are taught by a specially trained nurse instructor. She will explain and discuss the baby's progress from conception through birth, the need for periodic medical examinations for both mother and baby, the questions of budgeting time and money and how community health affects family health.

Parents will have an opportunity to take part in the discussion. Through practice they will gain confidence in their ability to care for the baby.

Parents may register for the class by calling the Upland Chapter, Yu. 2-3113.

Registration Open For '63 Season For Mt. S.A. Council Camp Nawakwa

Registration is open for the 1963 camping season at Camp Nawakwa, owned and operated by Camp Fire Girls, Mt. San Antonio Council.

Camp Nawakwa, an Indian word meaning "deep in the heart of the forest," is located in the San Bernardino Mountains at Barton Flats. It is on top of a heavily wooded ridge about 65 miles from Pomona.

The camp is spread out over about 18 acres of land, consisting of six living units, a dining room and kitchen, health cabin, director's cabin, craft center, library, staff cabin, three sanitary units, tool sheds, and two unit lodges.

Each unit is unique and different. There are two Blue Bird units housing a total of 56 girls. Each of the units consist of three cabins. New Klosks will house 30 girls completing the fourth grade. Klosks are open shelters on cement floors. Teepees will house those girls completing the 5th grade.

Cabins at the recently purchased Li Tanda Camp will be set aside for 30 Junior High girls. These girls will use the Li Tanda dining room as a unit lodge. Horizon Clubbers will live in wall tents near the Junior High unit and share the unit lodge.

The camp program is planned by the girls assisted by qualified staff members. Swimming, supervised by Red Cross Water Safety Instructors, is carried on at Jenks Lake. Canoeing is available for the more advanced swimmers. Horseback riding is offered at a near by Barton Flats Stables. Junior High and High School campers may participate in a horseback overnight camping trip.

Naturelore, star gazing, hand arts, archery, volley ball, hiking, cookouts, camp craft skills, singing, folk dancing and impromptu dramatics are just a few of the activities available at Nawakwa.

Each session closes with an impressive Council Fire at which time camp mementos and honors are presented to the campers. Religious services are provided according to the camper's faith.

An important part of any camping experience is meal time. Attractive, well balanced meals are prepared by qualified cooks and are served in the main lodge.

The camper's health and safety are supervised by a registered nurse. All campers are required to have a health examination prior to camp; these are used by the nurse to assure the camper a safe, happy experience while at Nawakwa. A qualified physician spends the summer in the Barton Flats area and is on call at all times.

The counseling staff comprises well qualified young women having college experience. All must be at least 19 years of age or have completed one year of college. Specialists and Unit Directors are required to be at least 21 years of age with college experience.

Campers are supervised at all times in a ratio of one counselor to every six to eight campers. Miss Carol Bitner, a member of the Council Staff serves as camp director.

Camp Nawakwa will be operated for nine, one-week sessions beginning on Monday, June 24. The bus leaves at 9:45 a.m. each Monday and returns the following Monday about 3 p.m. to the Camp Fire Girls office in Pomona.

Camp Nawakwa is open to members and non-members. The fee is slightly higher for non-members, but the registration procedure is the same. Two registration forms must be sent to the Camp Fire office along with the registration fee of $10. The remainder of the fee must be paid one week prior to departure date. Forms are avilable at the office.

The Mt. San Antonio Council has made arrangements with the Blue Chip Stamp Company and the S. and H. Company to use both stamp books as cash in paying the camp fee. The S & H book is worth $2, and the Blue Chip book is worth $1.80. Only complete books will be accepted at the Camp Fire office.

Interested parties may turn stamp books into the Camp Fire Girl's office, 330 E. Center St., Pomona, to be used for Camperships. Camperships are available to members and non-members. Necesary application forms will be mailed upon request.

Four work parties have been planned for this spring. Friends and members of Camp Fire spend weekends at Camp, helping to open the camp; cleaning cabins, raking pine needles, and making general repairs. The entire family is welcome at camp. A nominal fee is charged for meals. Reservations should be made at the Camp Fire office for the weekends of May 24, May 31, June 7, and June 14.

An open house has been planned for June 23 from 12 noon until 4 p.m. Families are invited to bring a picnic lunch and tour the camp; meeting the counseling staff. Maps will be mailed upon request.

Camp Nawakwa is a member of the American Camping Association and the Barton Flats Camp Association. It has been operated for 40 years according to the standards and philosophy of Camp Fire Girls, Inc.

Student Talent Themes Alta Loma PTA Meeting

Talent was the theme for the recently held PTA meeting at the Alta Loma School.

Pictures drawn by students of the school adorned the walls and Girl Scout Troop No. 1151, under the direction of Mrs. Don Schmidt, demonstrated their singing talent after they had presented the colors. Their numbers included: Hello, A Girl Scout Song, Deafwoman's Courtship, Angel's Watching Over Me, and Girl Scouts Together.

A representative from the eighth grade, Nancy Hamner, read the Constitution for the Eighth Grade Student Body which was written by the Constitution Committee of that class.

Mrs. Daniel Hamiel brought the thought for the day entitled "Count Your Blessings". Mrs. Elmer Williams read a letter prepared by herself and Mrs. Robert Murry regarding the PTA's concern for the teaching of music in our school. This letter is to be read before the next school board meeting.

Mrs. Lloyd Michaels will soon have the list of motion pictures sponsored by the PTA to be shown this summer at the Grove Theatre in Upland.

Mrs. George Stamm announced that the Ontario Symphony Orchestra will present a program for children at 3 p.m. on May 19 at the Gardner W. Spring Auditorium.

The Red Cross class in Home Nursing and Care for the Sick and Injured is still being conducted on Monday nights and will continue until May 20. The place has been moved to the Chaffey College campus but the hours remain at 7:30 - 9:30 p.m.

Mrs. Marvin Brandt, secretary, read the minutes from the last PTA board meeting which included: the introduction of Mrs. Lorraine Axelson as the new Juvenile Protection Officer, the decision to add a Civil Defence Chairman to the board and the presentation and passing of a proposal by Mrs. George Stamm that the PTA sponsor a community 4th of July picnic. Mrs. Stamm volunteered to be chairman of that project.

Mrs. Kenneth Hinrichsen introduced the guest speaker who was Mr. Stanley Waldrop, Professor of Psychology at Chaffey College. He spoke on "Problems in Discovering and Developing Talent".

According to Mr. Waldrop there are two ways to discover the talented child (1) by watching the behavior of the child through the year, and (2) by giving an I.Q. test. He stated that now the tendency is to expand the knowledge and experiences of the talented child at his own age level rather than have him skip grades as was previously done.

After Mrs. Millard Herr, President, closed the meeting, refreshments were served by Mrs. Danil Hamiel, Ruth Pedvin, Thelma Wyant, Lupe Ledesma, Janice Wise and Mrs. B. J. Roberts.

* * *

Mrs. Millard Herr, is now attending the Annual PTA Convention which is being held in Los Angeles at the Statler-Hilton.

Among the programs scheduled will be speakers such as Dr. Rafferty, State Superintendent of Schools and Dr. Babitz, from the State Department of Parent Education.

Before she left Mrs. Herr said, 'I count it a priviledge to represent our PTA again this year and plan to take it all in. It really does something to a person to be in a big crowd like that and all be interested in the same thing - children and school".

Upland Woman's Club Stages Annual Pastime, Posey Show

The Sixth Annual Pastime and Posey Show was held in the Upland Woman's Clubhouse on April 30, with the members of the raden Section in charge.

The general public and members of all clubs and organizations were invited to enter their exhibits. Also, this year for the first time the Upland High School, and the Upland Pioneer High School and the Upland Junior High Schools Art departments entered the work of their students in this show.

This is a combined Arts, Crafts and Flower Show. This year the show had the heaviest entry of Flower Arrangements and of Arts and Crafts since the show was started. There were 22 exhibitors in the Crafts and hobbies division, with many of them entering several exhibits, plus the Arts and Crafts displays from the schools, which were not competive.

The Arts and Craft displays of the students of three Upland Schools were arranged by the Art teachers from the schools, Mrs. Quackenbush of Upland Junior High School, Mrs. McCallum of Pioneer Junior High School and Miss Pleasant of the Upland High School.

In the Art division the paintings were entered by adults and nine by the students of the three schools. The judging of the paintings was done by Mrs. George Whitney of Upland, who awarded seven first and second place ribbons. Mrs. Seymour Lydick was the chairman in charge of this division.

In the flower arrangement and horticulture division there were 32 exhibitors, with many of them entering several exhibits.

Mrs. C. P. Jacobs General chairman of the show, was in charge of this division, assisted by Mrs. Ralph Almquist, and Mrs. Ben Woodward and Mrs. Wesley Cummings.

Registering entries were Mrs. H. L. Presba, Mrs. Wesley Cummings and Mrs. C. P. Jacobs. All of the posters to advertise this show were made by Mrs. Jack Dorrity. All of the judges were taken to luncheon, with Mrs. Wilford Carver and Mrs. Ralph Almquist acting as hostesses.

Starting at 1:30 in the afternoon there was a sit down program consisting of a full color sound motion picture "Britain is a arden" loaned by the British Travel Association.

Part of the program was the demonstration of landscape painting by Christine Neff of the Pioneer Junior High School. Christine, who is 14, placed her easel on the stage facing the audience and painted a landscape scene complete with mountains, meadows, flowering tree, split rail fence, birds and daffodils in four minutes. Mrs. McCallum is her art teacher. Mrs. C. S. Stowell played soft background music on the piano while she painted.

Following the program a tea was served by the members of the Garden Section, all of the food being donated and served by the members of this section.

Mrs. E. L. Johnson, Mrs. Rose Cunning and Mrs. Edwin Griffith were in charge of the tea committee with Mrs. Geo. Gehrt and Mrs. Thomas Williams assisting them. Pouring at the Tea Table were Mrs. Ralph Almquist outgoing President and Mrs. W. W. Woodward, President-elect.

Spartans End Worse Ball Season

It will be many moons before Upland College's varsity baseball suffers a season as the present one that is coming to a wishful close.

At press time the Spartans had extended their losing streak to 15 consecutive games dating back to the opening game of the season with La Verne.

Thursday afternoon at the Memorial Park diamond, the Spartans will play host to rival Cal Lutheran College in a contest slated to get underway at 3:15 p.m.

The Kingsmen bombed the locals by a 15-7 count at Thousand Oaks earlier this season and will be out to make it two straight.

Upland has been playing sound ball in recent weeks but has failed to come through with the timely hit that would spell victory.

Such was the case last Thursday as the locals dropped a 3-2 decision to Orange County State. Pitcher George Barber was in complete command but watched as State scored its three tallies on a walk, passed ball and a foul sacrifice fly to left.

WHEREAS, the COMMITTEE believes that the City should agressively pursue a course of recommending annexation of areas that offer benefit to the community and areas where in the community can be beneficial to the sections being annexed; therefor, be it resolved that the COMMITTEE rcommends the annexation of the following areas with the establishment of the land uses as recommended herein as rapidly as the residences thereof can be encouraged to enter the City:

1. From Benson Avenue west along the north side of Arrow Highway to the County line northward to Foothill Boulevard. With the areas along Central Avenue being highway commercial and the first ten (10) acres along Foothill Boulevard being M or light industrial and remainder being medium family residential with the commercial being buffered by high density residential.

2. From Benson Avenue west to the County line from Foothill Boulevard north to 24th Street as light industrial excepting those portions along the north side of Foothill Boulevard which are designated as highway commercial zoning.

3. From Mountain Avenue west to Benson Avenue from 16th Street north to 24th Street excepting those areas already within the City of Upland be designated as medium density residential except those lots facing Mountain Avenue south of the proposed Foothill Freeway be designated as commercial with a high density residential buffer area adjacent to same.

4. The area commonly known as San Antonio Heights should be annexed into the City with the zoning that has presently been established by the County Planning Commission. The COMMITTEE realizes that at the present time this area receives all the benefits of living within the City without having to pay City taxes and further realizes that there is little hope of this area in the immediate future being annxed into the City until the City's development has progressed northward and is adjacent to these properties.

5. The area from Grove Avenue eastward to Baker Avenue extending from the Santa Fe Railroad tracks northward to 9th Street should be annexed and given a heavy industrial zoning excepting those areas currently developed for residential use. The areas currently developed for residential use should be designated high density residential to encourage the redevelopment of same.

6. The area from Baker Avenue to Archibald Avenue from the Santa Fe Railroad tracks north to Arrow Highway should be annexed in a heavy industrial zone. The area north of Arrow Highway from Grove Avenue eastward to Archibald Avenue to be annexed and designated a medium density residential excepting those sections along Foothill Boulevard which should be designated highway commercial. The area on the north side of Foothill Boulevard from Grove Avenue eastward to Archibald to be designated as highway commercial.

7. The Red Hill area should be annexed only if the Country Club is willing to annex into the City, then consideration should be given to the annexing of the other areas on the hill and to be entered into the City as a residential zoning in accordance with the present uses.

Utility Service

The COMMITTEE realizes that to encourage areas to annex to the City we must offer something of value to these areas.

Many of these areas currently have their own satisfactory school system, county fire department districts, police protection by the county sheriff substation, and public utility water systems.

The City, however, can offer many of these areas a connection to sewer systems if we extend our services as rapidly as possible to open new territories for connection to our sewage disposal system. The City can also offer better control of community development by having all the communities regulatory agencies close at hand for the benefit of the citizens at the City Hall rather than the County Seat.

The City must make recommendations to these annexing areas relative to water supply systems so as not to conflict with the public utility systems currently established to serve their particular areas.

The City can and must establish and recommend zonings to the annexing areas that would be attractive to those parties entering the City and must of necessity establish procedures whereby the citizens neds can be readily and efficiently accommodated without undue delay that would hamper their development.

Future Established Zones

The COMMITTEE believes that in order to attract commercial and industrial development in the community and to annex areas adjacent to the community that it will be necessary for the City to zone property well in advance of its anticipated use in order that future residente and developers will know what the highest use of property near them will be and that the property will be available on a moments notice at any time a consein arrives to establish an new venture in the community.

It is the belief of the COMMITTEE that this future zoning of property will not be harmful to the City for if the property has a possibility of commercial use and the price of property selling in the area are indicative of commercial type uses then the tax assessor will assess the property at a higher rate and the City will thus gain additional revenue whether the land changes its actual use or remains the same.

If at sometime in the future the owner of a property that is zoned commercial or industrial finds that due to development near him it would be advisable to change the zoning to allow a different or lower type of use, he could request that his property be zoned downward to allow a more restricted type of use and this would not adversely affect the adjacent property or the rest of the community; however, if a property is designated as residential zone with development occuring at its borders for residential development it would then be extremely difficult for the City and property owner to obtain commercial or industrial zone after development has encompassed the property.

For this reason the COMMITTEE feels that advance zoning of property ahead of use and ahead of the influence of development is a necessity to stablize the future tax base of th community.

The COMMITTEE further realizes that the use of the conditional use permit may seem desirable from the stand point of control, however, a conditional use permit does not change the zoning and any appraiser appraising the roperty for tax purposes or other means must of necessity look to the precise zoning established on the property and ignore the existance of the conditional use permit which can be revoked at will, consequently, the property owner will be unable to get the best financing commitments obtainable due to the enability to obtain sufficiently high appraisals of the land; thus, the COMMITTEE would recommend the very limited use of conditional use permits and suggest that they be used only in severe hardship cases.

It is the hope of this COMMITTEE that this report and recommendations will be taken in the spirit of cooperation between the citizens and the administrative bodies of the City.

The report is intended to establish guide lines to help the City obtain development that will be beneficial to all citizens of the community and obtain a broader tax base in the future and will establish the City as one encouraging development rather than hampering same.

Directories To Be Delivered

The new 1963-64 telephone directories for General Telephone customers in the Pomona and Upland exchange are being delivered by hand during the week of May 5 to 11, according to an announcement by C. B. Miller, local Division Manager.

The newest edition of the directory will follow the usual format of providing listings for customers in Pomona, Claremont, Chino, La Verne, Montclair, San Dimas and Walnut in one section; and listings for Upland, Ontario, Alta Loma, Cucamonga, Etiwanda, Guasti, Mt. Baldy and environs in another separate section.

Classified or Yellow Pages will be particularized, one for the Upland area and another for the Pomona area.

Crest Upland To Feature Oak Floors

Use of exposed floors set off with patterned area or accent rugs has reached a new high in popular appeal and now ranks among the top fashion trends in room planning, according to H. B. Morgan, President of H. B. Morgan Co., creators of Crest Upland.

The sharply increased preference for this decorative practice is attributed in considerable measure to a renewed appreciation for the natural beauty of oak and other attractive hardwoods, which are employed at Crest Upland.

These 3 and 4 bedroom homes feature a long list of unusual appointments to make everyday living more comfortable.

Furnished models may be inspected at 11th and Mountain View in Upland.

Annual Scout Showando Held April 27 At Prado

A total of 84 Old Baldy Council Scouters and 84 Scouts and Explorers participated in the Council's annual father and son "Showando" at Prado Dam, on April 27, according to George W. Van Tubergen, staff advisor.

"The purpose of a 'showando' is to provide a day of Boy Scouting activity built around a patrol of fathers and sons (or selected Scouts) from each troop. Through the activity program the patrol has fun, learns basic Scouting skills, and knit themselves into a close working team who really learn to know one another," Van Tubergen said.

Bill Porter, Montclair, and Don Powell, Pomona, were in charge of registration. After registration and organization of 10 man patrols, the fathers and sons started on a 14 station showando trail where they were instructed in the following skills for 18 minute periods.

Rope Whipping, instructed by Tom Helton and Bob Hartness, Fontana; Knot Tying, John Davis, Pomona; Lashing, Pete Bernhardt, Pomona; Axemanship, Elo Poulson, Ontario; Morse Code, Walter Sterk, Pomona; Stretcher Making, Bud Blaney, Pomona; Compass, Curly Burks and Leroy Crabbe, Alta Loma; Nature Trail, Leon Lamphear, Upland; Diamond Hitch, Rolland Bowen and Al Bowen, Ontario; Fire by Friction, Joe Hernandez, Ontario; Cooking, Howard Kalish, Bernard Kamp Pack; Hobo Stove, Cliff Brock, Ontario, and Map Contours, instructed by Vernon Weeks, Chino.

The patrols stopped for a nosebag lunch at noon and resumed the showando trail until 4 p.m. when Frank Goodykoontz, Pomona, and Pete Bernhardt, Don Powell, Joe Hernandez, ran a competitive patrol rally.

Weldon Diggs, La Verne, was in charge of the showando cook-out instruction after which each course member cooked a foil dinner of stew meat, potatoes, onions, and carrots over a charcoal fire with baked apple and cup cakes for dessert.

Curly Burks, Cucamonga, was in charge of the evening campfire where rally ribbons were presented by Goodykoontz.

Councilmen Keep Waiver Power On Water Stock

Upland Councilmen will retain complete power to waive the required selling of water stock to the City when stock is hard to find by subdividers.

City Atty. Don Maroney said the solution to the problem of turning this power over to the City Manager, as proposed at the last meeting, was settled neatly—just delete the section entirely turning this power over to the City Manager.

With this deletion solving the problem—the Council voted for other procedural standards by a 3 to 0 vote.

Poetry, Play Entries In

Entries are coming in for the Pomona Valley Writer's Club Spring Poetry and Play contests, according to chairman Mrs. A. L. Pond.

The spring poetry contests have been a part of the 27-year-old club's history for several seasons and for the last four years it has been open to the public.

The one-act play contest is new this year; its purpose is to stimulate interest in the theater, to introduce playwriters to performers.

Rules for both of the contests are posted at the Montclair, Pomona and Ontario libraries.

Judging the poetry contest will be James R. Housel, head Ontario librarian. Housel was first vice president of the Writer's club last year.

Maxine Coats Lentz will judge the play contest. Mrs. Lentz has been active in many little theater groups. She is now with the Garrick Players of Ontario.

The contest awards banquet is open to all interested persons. This dinner will be held at the Ontario Elk's Club, 1150 West Fourth St., Ontario, at 7 p.m., Friday, May 10. Reservations may be obtained by calling NA. 4-6460 or NA. 6-7477 before May 6.

FOUR CARS were involved in an accident at 10:45 a.m. Friday, April 26 on Foothill Blvd. at 3rd Place in Upland. Driver of the new station wagon above, Everett E. Summer, 69, of Fullerton, told police he was traveling about 30 mph and slowed down preparing to stop behind a car about to turn left. Summer's car was struck in the rear by William D. Barnes, 34, of Fontana, driving the light van shown below. The impact pushed the Summer vehicle into the left turning car driven by Josephine A. Foster, 9353 19th St., Alta Loma. Another car, driven by Steven E. Owen, 17, of 1393 Alta, Upland, struck the van as he tried to pass the scene. Summer was injured slightly and treated at the scene by ambulance attendants. Barnes was issued a citation for driving too fast for safe conditions. All cars were traveling west on Foothill.

At Chaffey College

Student Nurse Applicants Have Questions Answered

In answer to a great number of inquiries, the Chaffey College Nursing Program has compiled a list of those questions most frequently asked. Mrs. Ruth Schindler, coordinator of nursing at the college has prepared the list.

"We must enroll new applicants for the regular nursing program in the spring preceding the September opening of college," Mrs. Schindler stated. "This procedure allows new students to complete all tests and interviews prior to the actual start of school."

The questions most frequently asked are:

1. What does the nursing program consist of?

A. Chaffey College offers a well-rounded program in nursing which fulfills the requirements for an Associate in Arts degree. Students who complete the program are eligible to take the California State Board examination for licensure as a registered nurse. In addition to the academic requirements being fullfilled, students gain actual clinical experience at San Antonio Hospital, Kaiser Foundation Hospital and Patton State Hospital.

2. What qualifications should I have?

A. High school education or equivalent determined by tests algebra, chemistry, eligibility to enroll in English 1A, satisfactory physical and emotional health.

3. Who is eligible?

A. Women between the ages of 17 and 45. Applicants over 45 will be considered on an individual basis.

4. How much does the program cost?

A. Chaffey College is a tuition-free community college, therefore only the regular student body fee books and uniforms are charged for. The total estimated minimum cost for a student living at home is $175.00 per year.

5. Where are the courses taught?

A. All general education subjects and nursing lectures are held on the Chaffey Campus. Clinical laboratory experiences are provided at the three hospitals previously named.

All applicants must be admitted as a regular status student which requires the taking of placement tests, clearance of prerequisites, and personal interview with the admissions subcommittee. Any one who is interested should make an appointment at the Registrar's office for an interview and placement test. Dates available will be EACH Friday morning, May 10-17-24-31 and June 7. Further information regarding the Nurses Training Program, telephone the registrar's office at YU 7-1737 or VA 2-7456.

AN EDITORIAL

Are Voters Really Sold On The High School Bond Issue?

High School District officials are working overtime these days in an all-out effort to convince voters that a $10½ million bond issue must be approved on May 28 or our educational program will suffer.

Strong assistance is tendered in the form of a citizens committee which is doing much of the leg work and necessary details.

In attempting to be completely fair, we have published all the material presented by the pro-bond group. There has been little open opposition to the $10½ million proposal although we know there is some silent opposition.

We do not agree with the complete program as offered by those favoring the passage of the bond issue, but we are in agreement that new schools and classrooms are needed.

We are opposed to such a long-term arrangement and believe the amount of the bond issue should be less at this time.

Crystal-gazing eight years into the future for our exact needs is purely guesstimation. School authorities realized, and rightfully so, that the public would not support an open-end bond issue without a specific program attached.

This program may possibly be subject to change within the nine-year period. The board knows this and it was openly discussed at a board meeting.

In our discussions with committee and school officials, we have heard them predict privately that the present bond issue may be enough financing for only seven, and possibly even five years — not nine as planned.

If this is possible, the voters should be so informed and not left in the dark. At a minimum, this viewpoint heartily substantiates our statement that the bond issue is crystal-ball gazing for too long a period.

And also to back up this belief, we have heard Trustee Allred, from Upland, state in public during the recent election that Upland High School may get its auditorium within 2 to 4 years because of "new" figures that possibly will make this feasible.

So before the bond issue ever is voted upon, we have indications that 9-year predictions are not cut-and-dried as some want us to think.

If necessary to change the program as outlined, the trustees plan to seek the guidance of the Citizens Committee, but it will not be returned to the voters. There is little doubt that the citizens committee would "go along" with school officials regarding any change just as they are pushing the original recommendations.

We cannot be sure that the planned addition to Montclair High School and the South Ontario High School will handle all the students for the next 10 years. We cannot be sure that a second high school will be necessary for Upland before another is built in the Etiwanda-Cucamonga-Alta Loma area.

Suppose the population explosion changes from northern Upland to Etiwanda and Alta Loma? As we have said before, one big industry could quickly change future plans.

To show how plans do change, the district purchased two sites in past years by the crystal ball method believing the next schools would be built there. One site is in the East Ontario-Guasti area and the other in Etiwanda. Now the change in growth demands the possibility of another Upland site rather than locate on property presently owned.

Should the district sell one of the two sites that will remain unused for the next 10-12 years and apply the money to the new Upland site? Will either of the two sites ever be used for a high school? Who can tell?

The Upland Elementary District projects its programs about five years in advance and even then must make changes in anticipated programs.

In these days of extensive growth and changes, we believe only short range plans can be really accurate. The High School District has projected eight years into the future showing enrollments, bonding capacity and cost of the program. This so-called "fact sheet" issued by the district and the Citizens Committee was published in the May 2 edition of this newspaper.

The information is probably as accurate as is possible in an attempt to convey the needs for the $10½ million bond passage.

But, forecasting nine years in the future borders on the impossible.

We have been told that a new bond issue could be passed within four months after the defeat of this one. We certainly recommend that a smaller amount of money be earmarked over a shorter period of time, both for the sake of the citizens and the schools.

We are not disturbing the pattern of building classrooms or schools, nor will our proposal delay this growth, for the district can only sell so many bonds per year based on assessed valuation and bonding capacity and we followed the district's own figures.

Since the election for the bond issue has already been scheduled, it is too late to change the amount or the program.

It is our recommendation that voters TURN DOWN the bond issue on May 28 at the polls . . . then the district can set a more accurate program of shorter range and a lesser amount.

We would favor a $2,500,000 bond issue with a building program extending over a two or three year period. This amount would cover the immediate addition to Montclair High School, the purchase of another Upland site, the first stages of a new school in South Ontario and the auditorium for the present Upland High.

This would also permit the district to face a possible split of the district which we believe is in the offing before nine years.

The way times are changing so rapidly, it is also impossible to operate too far in the future.

When a dynamic editorial comes along the pike we believe it should be given the widest possible circulation. We commend to our readers' attention the following editorial from the Odessa (Tex.) American:

WHAT KIND OF A 'NUT' IS HE?

He wants to run his own business.
He wants to select his own doctor.
He wants to make his own bargains.
He wants to buy his own insurance.
He wants to select his own reading matter.
He wants to provide for his own old age.
He wants to make his own contracts.
He wants to select his own charities.
He wants to educate his children as he wishes.
He wants to make his own investments.
He wants to select his own friends.
He wants to provide his own recreation.
He wants to compete freely in the market place.
He wants to grow by his own efforts.
He wants to profit from his own errors.
He wants to take part in the competition of ideas.
He wants to be a man of good will.

What kind of a nut is he? He's an American who understands and believes in the Declaration of Independance, that's what kind.

Aren't you glad you are too? And don't you wonder why so many of our fellow Americans are trying so hard to destroy the kind of life that has made us the aim and the envy of every other people on earth?

The question is: What kind of nuts are they?

Editor,
Upland News
Dear Sir,

Is Upland to become like several of the smaller communities nearby with an hodgepodge of homes and second rate shopping centers?

Much concern is evident among the small property owners in the 16th Street and San Antonio Avenue area regarding certain rezoning proposals. (Specifically changes within the R-1 status, as well as changes from R-1 to R-3 and Commercial).

Some of this concern may be selfish, yet with many others their thoughts are for an orderly, well developed, and distinctive Upland.

This kind of orderly development cannot occur if too much of the existing zoning is changed to meet the immediate interests of a few large land developers.

Sincerely,
G. L. Stewart

Dear Sirs:

Recognizing the many problems before you which are attendent to population growth in a large area, and taking into account the necesary ambiguities of city-county zoning and services, we should like to draw your attention to some hazards currently existing north of Foothill and west of Euclid.

It would appear to our untrained eyes that approval of house construction in the area mentioned is greatly out-distancing city and county efforts in the construction of dispersed substations and in the provision of personnel for PROTECTIVE SERVICES.

As a resident couple for eight years, the events of the last year in the area have been disturbing (burglaries, fires, and traffic control problems). To get more specific, let us raise some questions on the topic of traffic ontrol in this geographic area:

1) Why hasn't a three-way traffic light at the intersection of Mountain and Foothill replaced the services of two to six local officers on Sunday afternoons and during other rush hours? Concentration of so many local personnel in one spot seems questionable, yet the intersection is dangerous even with the new turnout lanes.

2) Shouldn't a similar light be placed at San Antonio and Foothill as protection to students and to athletic spectators attending Upland High School?

3) Why is 23rd St. both unposted with signs and unlimited in speed between San Antonio and Mountain? It constitutes the northernmost through street from Euclid to Mountain, and is very heavily travelled by large numbers of new residents below the dam and by spectators going to the Little League park.

By Walt Orvis

I've talked before about the Pomona Ontario Valley Economic Development Council, and after attending a public information meeting, I've got more to say, and more questions to ask.

Lucien Truehill, manager of the Orange County Associated Chamber of Commerce, made a masterful presentation at the meeting. He said development work belongs with the Chamber of Commerce.

Despite a story in the Pomona paper that there is no difference between a development council and an area-wide Chamber, except the name he said there was.

Councils have much glamor, Truehill said, and find it easy to get money at the start, easier than a Chamber, but also find it drying up because of the lack of results for a long period of time, and that Chambers can do the job and wear better over that long haul.

After listening to him and questions and answers plus comments from the audience, I'm convinced more than ever that there is some diabolical plotter(s) pushing the formation of the POVEDC.

Truehill said, among other things, that having an economic base survey made by an OUTSIDE firm is No. 1 item. Such a firm's finding will be accepted nationwide, Truehill said. Local studies are suspect, do-it-yourself projects.

He also said an executive, which he did not put as the No. 1 item, could be hired for as little as $9,000 ayear.

* * *

Enter Dr. George C. S. Benson, Claremont Men's College president. He is really all out for the formation of the POVEDC.

He made several things very clear at the meeting last week.

One is that he wants cities' (taxpayers') money for the POVEDC, wants real bad.

Another is that he doesn't want any $9,000 executive. Which brings up the question of whether or not he is committed to some one person as the chief executive of the POVEDC? At one meeting he said Tom DeMott of Pomona Chamber of Commerce is available.

Another question that arises is this: If he is committed to one certain individual, is that individual committed to Dr. Benson?

A Claremont councilwoman asked Truehill about having a local organization do the research job, the economic base survey.

Does Dr. Benson want that for his college? Is he working for the development of the valley, or for his college? Is his interest in the POVEDC selfless or selfish

It's doubtful if he wants the POVEDC sinecure for himself.

Another thing he made clear is that there are things he doesn't want to discuss in public. He's real smooth in parrying questions.

"We should take that up at the next board of directors meeting," Dr. Benson said more than once.

Last time he and the boys got together to talk about how to latch onto, and spend the taxpayers' money, the discussion was kept secret. What was admitted to the light and air of public scrutiny was released by and through Dr. Benson.

* * *

Another point Truehill made was that if an industry wanted to join the Orange County organization and wasn't a member of the local Chamber, the person was sent to join his local Chamber "where he belongs."

There's no such provision in the by-laws of the POVEDC. It would take industrial members without local Chamber membership, and those outfits wouldn't join local Chambers, cutting the ground from under the local Chambers of Commerce.

Pomona and practically everyone in authority in that town is pushing hard for the POVEDC. Why? Pomona will soon be out of industrial land in quantity and variety.

It's a safe bet that Pomona pictures itself as the commercial and distribution hub of the entire valley. After filling its own commercial lands, such a commercial-distribution center could benefit most by helping plants locate nearby. So Pomona is working for Pomona, and looking for ways to get others to help pull Pomona's chestnuts out of the fire.

* * *

After listening to Truehill, I'm convinced that an economic base survey by an independent, outside organization would be an immense benefit to any city or area.

I'm also convinced that the POVEDC, based on two virtuous ideas, industrial development and cooperative action, is not if itself necessarily virtuous. Give the jobs to the local Chambers. Truehill said the POVEDC directors should sit down with local Chamber managers and see what they want.

POVEDC's big pushers apparently don't want that. Are they afraid of the Chamber managers? Are they afraid the Chamber managers, professionals in the business, will discover the jokers in the deck?

One thing the high-minded dreamers (if that's what they really are) who are pushing the POVEDC haven't come up with yet, but probably will, is an executive committee formed from the board.

On the 29-man board, each city and each Chamber and 10 colleges would each have a vote. But a 29-man board is too big to get any actual work done, so comes the executive committee, who along with the chief executive would have supreme control. What a plum for somebody, not necessarily the public!

Economic Development may be a virtuous goal, and cooperation the right road, but POVEDC is not the vehicle. It's not the impartial train that goes down the rails, it's the driver's private car that goes where he wants it to, regardless of taose he is taking for a ride.

SPRING DANCE of the Ontario Council 3672, Knights of Columbus, will be held from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m. on Saturday, May 11, at the Elks Club. Miss Patricia Leonard, Queen of the Council, is shown the grand prize of a $100 savings bond by George Mim Mack, left, general chairman of the event. At right is Grand Knight William Isaacs. Queen Pat will present the prize during the Spring Dance. Bob Akers and his orchestra will provide the entertainment. All proceeds will go to the Columbian Charities to send teen age boys to retreat.

Janet Crider In Who's Who

Miss Janet Crider, an Upland College senior, has been honored by being named to the Who's Who Among Students. The presentation was made recently at the College Spring banquet.

The signal honor is presented to outstanding students in colleges and universities in the nation. Each school selects those worthy of the honor and in turn the nominees must be accepted by the organization which places the student record in an annual publication called Who's Who Among Students In American Universities and Colleges.

Upland nominees are selected by a student-faculty committee which judges senior class members on the basis of scholastic achievement, school loyalty, Christian character, Extra Curricular activities, potential for success and leadership ability.

Miss Crider is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Crider of Upland.

The honoree was born in Reading, Pa. and enjoyed the opportunity of study in a one-room school house. She took the fifth and sixth grades within one year. She attended public schools in Reading until enrolling in Messiah Academy (Grantham, Pa.). At the Academy she was honored by being named Valedictorian. She also received the Albert Brechbill Memorial Scholarship and was given the Betty Crocker Homemaker of Tomorrow Award.

While a student at Messiah College she was active on the Student Council, in varsity basketball, orchestra, debate, chorus, and class plays.

She has been a student at Upland College for the last two years and has been an enthusiastic participant in basketball, and as associate editor of the school annual. She was a student representative on the Curriculum Committee, Chapel Committee and on the Mid Year Seminar Steering Committee.

At present she is enjoying some practical experience working with the Department of Welfare. She is a Sociology major and is enjoying Psychology as a minor study. Janet is a member of the Upland Brethren in Christ Church.

Three Qualify In Typewriting Accuracy Contest

Three Upland High School secretarial students qualified for the Regional Facit Accuracy Contest held at Los Angeles City College recently.

The three girls, in competition at UHS, typed over 70 words a minute for five minutes with not one error. Nora Tomlinson typed 76 WPM, Eunice Dexter, 74 WPM, and Linda Hamilton 70 WPM.

Also, three UHS girls received medals for runner-up competition. They are Diane Mouser, Beverly Beeson and Gloria Allen.

Their typing teachers are Miss Mary Sauter and Andrew J. Malahan.

Senate Bill Would Give City $53,752

Under provisions of Senate Bill 344 (Collier) the city of Upland would receive $53,752. for street construction and rights of way, Richard Carpenter, executive director and general counsel, League of California Cities, said.

SB 344 would raise about $75 million annualy for the first five years to meet growing deficiencies of city streets and county roads.

The measure has passed in the Senate and is awaiting Assembly committee action. It would raise the gasoline tax by one cent and provide new revenue at the ratio of $2 state money to $1 local money.

Proponents claim that enactment of the bill would cost the average motorist only $6 a year, while the alternative method of raising money - by adding to the ad valorem property tax - would cost more.

Carpenter said this city would have to levy an increase in the ad valorem tax by 19 cents to obtain the same amount of revenue under SB 344.

Kudos to those who planned the Methodist Junior High Retreat this last week-end. Don Kaelin, associate minister and youth director, deserves a vigorous vote of thanks. This last question of speed on 23rd St. is of most concern to us, and we wish to elaborate upon it. In the last year, speeding vehicles have killed three fine dogs (not car chasers) on 23rd, between San Antonio and Mountain. There have been "near misses" with several of some twenty-five (25) children living along the north and south sides of this street. Please consider the following actions before a child is injured or killed:

1) on-the-pavement lettering of a 25 mph limit
2) posted signs of a 25 mph limit
3) additional patrol during peak evening traffic (4:00-7:00 PM)
4) expansion of present or planned fire substations (e.g. Euclid and 24th, Mountain and 20th) to jointly house fire and police personnel and vehicles to more promptly serve the area.

Please accept our thanks for your efforts to-date to keep up with growth. The warning observations and suggestions herein are tendered in a positive spirit of cooperation for civic problem-solving, not as criticisms. They are among the concerns of many people in the area, we believe. A reply or notice of date of consideration of these matters is requested.

SPRING SNOWFALLS are not unusual according to the old timers and certainly everyone here enjoys them, not only for their beauty but for the promise and blessings of water later in the year.

Part of the enjoyment of a snowfall is awakening early to the silent white world and watching for the sun to come up over Ontario Peak. It shines on the sycamores, not yet leafed out, shimmering with their icy jewels. The sharp spines of the yuccas look like frosty green pincushions.

Our tall scotch broom bushes are bent low to the ground with their cold, white burden.

The wire fence around our bottle garden is a jewelled, lacy border for the white blanket which covers the bottles. Even the lids of the trash cans are neat looking like white frosted cupcakes, and the clothesline sparkles with crystals.

Tracks of our racoon friends show an after snowfall visit to our back door. The snowbirds and squirrels are our first a.m. visitors and they enjoy the special treat prepared for them, using a recipe given to me by Elvira Schmutz of Alta Loma. Elvira uses bacon grease, peanut butter and oatmeal or birdseed. This time I mixed wheat hearts with the oatmeal and later the bluejays, grosbeak and a tanager tried the treat, also.

Yes, in spite of the wintry appearance spring is on its way and while some plants are late in blooming there are many harbingers which fulfill the promise of spring. The flock of bluejays which make their annual spring visit came in, in spite of the snow. It seems there are certain insects they find on the live-oaks this time of year.

* * *

A look at spring can be a reality by a visit to the Rancho Santa Ana Botanic Gardens in Claremont. The Saturday we visited it we met the Girl Scouts from Alta Loma with their leaders, Mrs. Schmidt and Mrs. Miller. They had just completed an informative and enjoyable tour.

Even though it was a gray, cloudy day many people were touring the extensive gardens which are planted with native California plants and trees. Most colorful plants blooming at this season were the large Fremontia bushes loaded with their yellow blossoms and the dark blue wild lilacs making an artistic contrast.

The wild lilacs are blooming in our canyon now the colors of the blossoms ranging from white to deep blue. The trip up the canyon is well worth it for a look at these California native plants. They can be found along the lower road from the mouth of the canyon to Hogsback as well as along the upper road.

They are beginning to bloom in the upper canyon and will continue their blooming now that warm weather is again with us. Scotch Broom which ordinarily is blooming in rich golden profusion at the entrance to the canyon along the upper road is just beginning to bloom, somewhat delayed by the cool spring.

Corvair Monza Club Coupe

Who needs muscles?

Do you know how easy it is to take a corner with a Corvair or park one? Turn this newspaper sideways and it will give you a pretty good idea. The wheel handles just about that easily.

The Corvair's engine is in the rear, for not only greater traction, but more balanced weight distribution. And that's what makes the steering so completely effortless.

The engine is air cooled, too. No radiator. No water or antifreeze. No boiling over or freezing up to worry about. It takes the weather and the terrain as it comes.
